

ICMBE 2024
The 23rd International Conference on Molecular Beam Epitaxy
September 8-13, 2024
Kunibiki Messe, Matsue, Shimane, Japan

The 23rd International Conference on Molecular Beam Epitaxy (ICMBE 2024) provides a prominent international forum for reporting new developments in the areas of fundamental and applied molecular beam epitaxy research, including advances in the technique, synthesis of new materials, discovery of new physical properties, formation of novel heterostructures and nanostructures, and the development of innovative devices.

This series of successful conferences began in 1978 in Paris, France, and in recent years, has taken place in Flagstaff, USA in 2014, Montpellier, France in 2016, Shanghai, China in 2018, Puerto de Vallarta, Mexico (virtual conference) in 2021, and Sheffield, United Kingdom in 2022. The 23rd International Conference on Molecular-Beam Epitaxy will take place at "Kunibiki Messe" (Shimane Prefectural Convention Center) in Matsue, Japan, over the 8 - 13 September 2024 (a welcome reception will be held on the 8th September and presentations will start on the 9th September).

Organizing Committee:

- Masaaki Tanaka (Chair), The University of Tokyo, Japan
- Masakazu Kobayashi (Co-Chair), Waseda University, Japan
- Masataka Higashiwaki (Co-Chair), Osaka Metropolitan University and NICT, Japan
- Hajime Asahi, Osaka University, Japan
- Yoshiji Horikoshi, Waseda University, Japan
- Hiroshi Yamaguchi, NTT Basic Research Laboratory, Japan

Exhibition

A trade exhibition will be held alongside the conference from 8 to 13 September and will be located alongside lunch and refreshments in the Exhibition Hall in the Kunibiki Messe.

The exhibition is an integral part of the event program and delegate experience, with time allocated for exhibitors to meet and interact with attendees as well as other vendors.

Who should exhibit?

- Manufacturers or agents of MBE systems and components as well as characterization equipment
- Suppliers of source materials and substrates
- Laboratory services providers
- Publishers working in the scientific community
- Employers of science graduates

Why exhibit?

- Meet with existing customers to strengthen brand loyalty
- Attract new customers
- Take advantage of face-to-face marketing
- Generate leads in a relaxed face-to-face environment
- Create lasting business relationships with other vendors and industry professionals
- Boost your brand visibility
- Research your industry and competition
- Reinforce your company's standing within the scientific community

Sponsorship

What are the benefits?

Sponsorship is an important aspect of any event as the revenue generated is used to reduce the registration fee, particularly for young researchers who are the next generation of customers for your organization. Sponsoring an event demonstrates that you are committed to supporting the community and, at the same time, effectively market your organization and get in front of your customers, old and new.

Sponsoring an event is a great way of:

- Connecting with your target market
- Acquiring new clients and showcasing the latest innovations and services to existing customers
- Standing out from your competitors
- Marketing your brand to the right audience
